The arrangement of the calendar pages gives the days of the week, day of the month, rising and setting of the sun, in apparent time: a column of fast and slow of the clock in minutes and seconds. Moon rising from full to change, and setting from change to full. The moon's days in the signs of Zodiac are also given near enough for the general reader.

The space on the right of these pages is occupied with "Events, &c.," most useful to be remembered as notable.

Look for a Comet soon in the Constellation—Andromeda, a few degrees northwest of the seven stars.

JANUARY has 31 days.

ECLIPSES IN 1862.

There will be five eclipses in 1862, three of the sun and two of the moon.

I. The moon will be totally eclipsed on the 11th of June;

Beginning, 11d. 9h. 16m. p.m.

Middle 11d. 10h. 54m. p.m.

And ends 12d. 0h. 33m. a.m.

Duration 3h. 17m.

In the West India Islands and New Mexico the moon will be totally eclipsed for one hour and three minutes.

The moon will be largely obscured at Great Salt Lake.

II. The sun will be eclipsed in the Great Southern Ocean on the 25th of June, at 11h. 28m. p.m.; to Utah invisible.

III. A small eclipse of the sun on the 21st of November at 10h. 48m. a.m., in the Great Southern Ocean.

IV. A total eclipse of the moon on the 6th of December;

Beginning, Dec. 5d. 10h. 19m., p.m.

Middle 6d. 0h. 14m. a.m.

And ends 6d. 2h. 8m., a.m.

Duration 3h. 49m.

The total portion of this eclipse, which will last about one hour and thirty minutes, will appear to the inhabitants of Mexico and the West India Islands as one of the phenomena of the last days.

V. A partial eclipse of the sun on the 20th of December at 9h. 38m., p.m. to Utah invisible.

It is purely an Asiatic eclipse.

USEFUL RECIPES.

HOW STEARIN CANDLES ARE MADE.

The fat or tallow is first boiled with quick-lime, and made into soap, and then the soap is decomposed by sulphuric acid, which takes away the lime and leaves the fat re-arranged as stearic acid, while a quantity of glycerin is produced at the same time. Glycerin comes out of the tallow in this chemical change. The oil is then pressed out of it; and the impurities are carried out by the oily part as the pressure goes on increasing; what is left is the stearin, which is melted and cast into candles. It is hard as wax, and not a bit more greasy.

TO MAKE HENS LAY,

A Correspondent of the "Prairie Farmer" says:—"I send you a recipe for making hens lay: Take some oats and boil them until soft; then fry them in hot fat, and you will have any quantity of eggs."

TO RENDER HARD WATER SOFT.

For every hundred gallons take half a pound of the best quick lime, make it into a cream by the addition of water; then diffuse it through the hard water in a tank or reservoir, and allow the whole to stand; it will quickly be bright, the lime having united with the carbonate of lime (which made the water hard), will be all deposited. This is one of the most beautiful applications of the art of chemistry.

FIRE AND WATERPROOF PREPARATION.

Slack common stone lime in a close vessel; when cool pass eight quarts through a fine sieve, and add to it a quart of fine salt and two gallons of pure water. Boil and skim. Then, to every four gallons of this mixture, add one and a quarter pound of rock alum, three fourths of a pound of copperas, half a pound of potash, and five quarts of fine beach sand. This wash will now admit any coloring matter that may be desired, and may be applied with a paint or whitewash brush, in the same manner as oil paints. It looks better than paint, will stop leaks in the roof, prevent moss from growing, and when laid upon brick-work, will render it impenetrable to rain or moisture.

TO PRESERVE HERBS.

---

The best way to preserve sweet and savory herbs for winter use, is—

1. To gather them at the right time, that is, just before they begin to flower.

2. For that purpose be sure to choose a fine dry day, and gather them when the dew is off.

3. To clean them well from dust and dirt; cut off the roots, and separate the bunches into smaller ones.

Dry them as quickly as possible without scorching them; the best way of doing this is to lay them pretty singly on a stove or in a Dutch oven in front of the fire. Thus their flavor and color will be best preserved.

5. When thoroughly dried, pick off the leaves, pound and rub through a hair sieve, and keep them in bottles closely stopped down.

Basil— is in the best state for drying from the middle of August and three weeks after.

Knotted Marjoram—from the beginning of July, and during the same.

Winter and Summer Savory—the latter end of July, and throughout August.

Thyme, Lemon Thyme, and Orange Thyme—during June and July.

Mint—latter end of June, and during July.

Balm—in June. This is better preserved in bunches in a place free from dust.

Sage—August and September.

Tarragon—June, July and August.

Chervil—May, June and July.

Bernet—June, July and August.

Parsley, Fennel, Elder Flowers and Orange Flowers—during May, June and July.

Herbs nicely dried are a very acceptable substitute when fresh ones cannot be got; but, however carefully dried, the flavor and fragrance of the fresh herbs are incomparably finer; and by those who have a sheltered garden, may be obtained, except in a very hard winter, to provide against which it is well to secure some dried herbs.

The seeds of parsley, fennel, celery, and some others, answer every purpose of imparting a flavor when the green herbs cannot be obtained, and are perhaps preferable to dried leaves.

TO PRESERVE VEGETABLES.

To keep Green Peas—Shell, and put them into a kettle of water when it boils; give them two or three warmings, and pour them into a colander. When the water drains off, turn them out on a dresser covered with cloth, and pour them on another cloth to dry perfectly. Then bottle them in wide mouthed bottles; leaving only room to pour clarified mutton suet upon them an inch thick, and for the cork. Rosin it down; and keep it in a cellar or in the earth. When they are to be used, boil them till tender, with a bit of butter, a spoonful of sugar and a bit of mint.

Another way—Shell, scald and dry them as above; put them on tins or earthen dishes in a cool oven once or twice to harden. Keep them in paper bags hung up in the kitchen. When they are to be used, let them lie an hour in water; then set them on with cold water and a bit of butter, and boll them till ready. Put a sprig of dried mint to boll with them.

French Beans—Pick them young, and throw them into a little wooden keg a layer of them three inches deep; then sprinkle them with salt, put another layer of beans, and do the same as high as you think proper, alternately with salt, but not too much of this. Lay over them a plate, or cover of wood, that will go into the keg, and put a heavy stone on it. A pickle will rise from the beans and salt. If they are too salt, the soaking and boiling will not be sufficient to make them pleasant to the taste. When they are to be eaten, cut, soak and boll them as if fresh.

Onions keep best roped and hung up in a dry cold room.

Small Cabbages, laid on a stone floor before the frost sets in, will blanch and be very good, after many weeks' keeping.

Shallots may be either roped as onions, or separate from the haum, and hung up in paper bags in a dry place.

RHEUMATISM.

Bathe the parts affected with water in which potatoes have been boiled, as hot as can be borne, just before going to bed; by the next morning the pain will be much relieved, if not removed. One application of this simple remedy has cured the most obstinate rheumatic pains.

HOW TO MAKE YEAST.

A baker gives the following receipt for making yeast: Boll one pound of flour, one-fourth pound of brown sugar, and a little salt, in two gallons of water for one hour. When milk warm, bottle and cork it close. It will be ready for use in twenty-four hours.

PRESERVING SKINS WITH THE HAIR ON.

The following simple mode of curing skins will make them as good as if regularly tanned:—Stretch the skin tightly and smoothly upon a board, hair side down, and tack it by the edges to its place. Scrape off the loose flesh and fat with a blunt knife, and work in chalk freely, with plenty of hard rubbing. When the chalk begins to powder and fall off, remove the skin from the board, rub in plenty of powdered alum, wrap up closely, and keep in a dry place for a few days. By this means it will be made pliable, and will retain the hair.

VEGETABLE GLUE.

Common animal glue is likely soon to be superseded by paste made of gluten. It looks like glue, and is quite as strong. Gluten, which is to be had at all starch-manufactories, will dissolve in twice its weight of cold water, and may be used in a cold state. A pound of this vegetable glue will yield three pounds when dissolved, whereas a pound of animal glue does not yield more than two.

SIMPLE ANTIDOTE FOR ALL POISONS.

A little child of Mr. P. Murray, on Tule river, was dangerously poisoned lately, by swallowing a number of percussion caps. Dr. Thompson was sent for and succeeded in neutralizing the deadly effects of the phosphorus and copper by administering repeated doses of the white of eggs. The Doctor informs us that this simple remedy if used in time is a good antidote against nearly the whole range of poisons which a child would be likely to get hold of. We have ourselves seen a valuable dog recovered from the effects of a dose of strychnine simply by administering the white of four eggs. — [Visalia Delta.

TO PREVENT SKIPPERS IN HAMS.

In a communication to the "Cotton Planter," Mr. W. McWillie says:—"There is, according to my experience, nothing easier than to avoid the skipper and all other worms and bugs that usually infest and often destroy so much bacon. It is simply to keep your smoke-house dark, and the moth that deposits the egg will never enter it. For the past twenty-five years I have attended to this, and never have had my bacon troubled by any insect. I have now hanging in my smoke-house, hams one, two and three years old, and the oldest are as free from insects as when first hung up. I am not aware of other causes for the exemption of my bacon from insects, but simply the fact that my smoke-house is always kept dark. Before adopting this plan, I had tried many experiments, but always either without success, or with injury to the flavor of my bacon. I smoke with green hickory—this is important, as the flavor of bacon is often utterly destroyed by smoking it with improper wood."

USEFUL HERBS.

Alder.—This is an astringent, useful in bleeding at the lungs, or as a wash for ulcers.

Motherwort.—This will ease the pain in the nervous headache.

Burdock.—This is a cathartic; it will produce perspiration. The leaves are good in fevers, to bind upon the head and feet.

Smart Weed.—This herb produces powerful sweating; is an excellent remedy to break up a cold when threatened with a fever; it may be drank in tea at liberty.

Winter Green.—This herb is a stimulant, diuretic, astringent and tonic; useful in scrofulas, tumors, cancers and kidney complaints. The tea is also useful as a wash for ill-conditioned sores and cutaneous eruptions.

Peppermint is a pleasant stimulant, promotes perspiration, and may be administered in all cases of colds, pain in the stomach and bowels, flatulency, headache, nausea, etc.

Pennyroyal is an agreeable stimulant, and, if convenient, should always be used in giving an emetic. It promotes perspiration and facilitates the operation of lobelia. It is also a valuable carminative; and may be freely used in all slight attacks of disease.

Gum Myrrh:—It is astringent, antiseptic, and tonic. It is useful in pulmonary complaints, loss of appetite, sore mouth and offensive breath. It is also useful in dysentery and diarrhea, and to cleanse offensive ulcers, putrid and ill-conditioned sores. Dose, a tea-spoonful of the tincture, or fourth of a tea-spoonful of the powder.

Cayenne—Is a pure, powerful and healthy stimulant, and produces, when introduced into the stomach, a sensation of warmth, which diffuses itself gradually through the system, but without any narcotic effect. It is an excellent remedy in all cases of colds, coughs, flatulency, congestion, dyspepsia, etc. It should not be taken in very large doses upon a cold or empty stomach, but in small quantities at first, gradually increasing the dose.

Bayberry.—The bark of bayberry is powerfully astringent, and slightly stimulating; useful for cleansing the stomach and bowels from canker, scarlatina, dysentery and diarrhea. A decoction of the bark is also useful as a gargle for sore throat, and as a wash for ill-conditioned sores.

Sumach.—The leaves and berries are stimulant, astringent and tonic, beneficial in dysentery, strangury, sore mouth, also for washing offensive sores and ring-worms.

Golden Seal—Is a laxative and tonic, and an excellent remedy in costiveness, loss of appetite, jaundice, debility, liver complaint, and faintness at the stomach. Taken in doses of an even tea-spoonful, it is efficacious in relieving unpleasant sensations occasioned by a hearty meal.

Hoarhound.—The root is stimulant and tonic, useful in coughs, colds, asthmatic affections, and in pulmonary diseases. It may be prepared with honey or molasses.

Yarrow.—This plant is a valuable stimulant, an excellent remedy in all cases of female weakness, colic and intermittent fevers. A decoction of the herb is also used as a wash for sores, salt-rheum and piles.

Dandelion is tonic and diuretic, an excellent corrector of the bile, and an invaluable remedy in hepatic diseases.

Catnip.—Valuable for injections. In fevers it promotes perspiration without raising the heat of the body.

Saffron.—Makes a valuable tea for children afflicted with the measles, chicken-pox, and all eruptive diseases.

A COTTON TREE.

There is a tree of this description which grows in a mountainous region of South America, where the snow lies on the ground three months in the year. A Mr. Kendall has one of them now growing on his farm near Baltimore. This tree, he says, is about the size of the Mulberry, is hardy and long-lived, and bears a pod—in fact a great many pods—filled with a choice quality of cotton. It can be grown throughout the Northern States, and will supply the cotton-fiber in abundance at little cost except for picking. The ordinary cotton plant is a very good one, but by no means the only one that yields a fiber suitable for textile fabrics; and perhaps this tree will supersede the plant when it becomes better known, if it flourishes in a cold climate.

MARK THIS!

The land where the "United States" once flourished as a free government for the good of mankind, was a "choice land" beyond the common knowledge of the world. Upon that land was planted the garden of Eden before satan brought sin along to try virtue. Upon that land, Adam offered sacrifice, repented, was baptized, received the gift of the Holy Ghost, raised a large family by Eve.

Upon that land, Enoch built up Zion, which was translated to heaven. Upon that land, Noah built the Ark which saved some of all flesh for the present world. Upon that land, when the earth had been changed so that "mankind had not dwelt upon its face since the flood," did Mahonri and Jared Meriancemer come out from the Tower of Babel, and live upon it in greatness more than 1,500 years.

Upon that land, the Nephites and Lamanites, by the flight of their father Lehi from Jerusalem, came and peopled the whole continent—whose "remnants" are lingering to fulfill the decrees of a just God. Upon that land, was the great battle of Jaredites, and Nephites and Lamanites at the Hill Cumorah. Upon that land, the Book of Mormon came forth from the plates of Nephi. Upon that land, the first seal was opened in 1830, for the gospel to go to all nations.

Upon that land, was the second seal opened in 1860, and the rebellion of South Carolina opened the stuff-box of war with a "pinch" for all nations. So, in years to come, the third seal of pestilence and famine, and the fourth seal of death and destruction will waste the gentile kingdom, as a preparation for that happy time when the Kingdom of God will spread over the goodly land, and inherit the waste places of Zion. More next year.

(Extract from a Revelation given in December, 1833.)

TO THE CHILDREN OF ZION.

“Let them importune at the feet of the judge; and if he heed them not, let them importune at the feet of the governor; and if the governor heed them not, let them importune at the feet of the President; and if the President heed them not, then will the Lord arise and come forth out of his hiding place, and in his fury vex the nation, and in his hot displeasure, and in his fierce anger, in his time, will cut off those wicked, unfaithful, and unjust stewards, and appoint them their portion among hypocrites and unbelievers; even in outer darkness, where there is weeping, and walling, and gnashing of teeth. Pray ye, therefore, that their ears may be opened unto your cries, that I may be merciful unto them. What I have said unto you, must needs be, that all men may be left without excuse; that wise men and rulers may hear and know that which they have never considered; that I may proceed to bring to pass my act, my strange act, and perform my work, my strange work. That men may discern between the righteous and the wicked, saith your God.”

GOOD OLD WORLD.

BY THE KING'S JESTER.

Poor old world—a hast'ning to thy destin'd end at last—Ours'd and deluged, ransack'd—oh, how awful is the past!

When thy corner-stones were laid,

Pure and holy wast thou made.

Rich old world—come back anew: eternity is vast.

Ages come and ages go in majesty and might,
Full of kingdoms, full of beings, right or wrong—they're right;

Seeking something yet ahead,
There they lay among the dead!

Good old world!—They had their day, and, even now, their night!

Great old world—all view thy treasures fairly scattered round:

Some to wise men, some to fools—all guests, alike re-nown'd—

With the knowledge, "others sinn'd,"
Blowing bubbles for the wind.

Wise old world—mark this: ye give, but keep—oh, how profound!

Watch, my friends! an elemental war is at your doors;
Earthquakes, tempests, whirlwinds, wrath and trouble,
yet by scores,

As the preachers next below
Will enlighten those that know.

Famous world!—you give each one a portion of your stores.

Wonderful! so shrew'd is wealth and greatness, wisdom saith;

Greatness has its inconveniences, and wealth no breath;
Watch! to-day they shine—but, what?

Weep! to-morrow they'r forget!

All but me, the billionth part, that quit claim on a death.

Good old world! you will be so, when you are new, indeed!

And the Saints, all sinless, royal infant spirits breed—
Blessing thus, as Michael did,
The celestial marriage bed;

Holy worlds!—progression is eternal: so decreed.
